I now call to order our meeting of the toy ladies' assembly.
Thunderblast, would you read the minutes of the last meeting?
We all had a pretend tea party while giggling like little girls.
There are more of us around now than there used to be, so we should—
THIS IS ALL A BUNCH OF CRAP!!
Will you jerks leave us alone!
Not until you 'ladies' stop acting all special with your exclusionary clubs!
Toys have no gender! we're all made of the same plastic. You're just a slightly different shape
AND GIRLS AM STUPID LAME TOO!!
That's not—
All right, I've heard enough. Get 'em Cheetara!
RRR.
YAAAH!!

SABRINA!
Zig Zag, where have you been?
Feels like we haven't been each other in a while.
I was in therapy.
Seriously? Is that the court-ordered thing?
It was, but I'm going there on my own now.
I— guess I wouldn't have expected that.
Me neither, but I think it might help me work some stuff out.
Well, I hope it DOES work out for you.
Yeah - y'know, I kinda owe this all to you—
— getting stabbed.
Sorry.

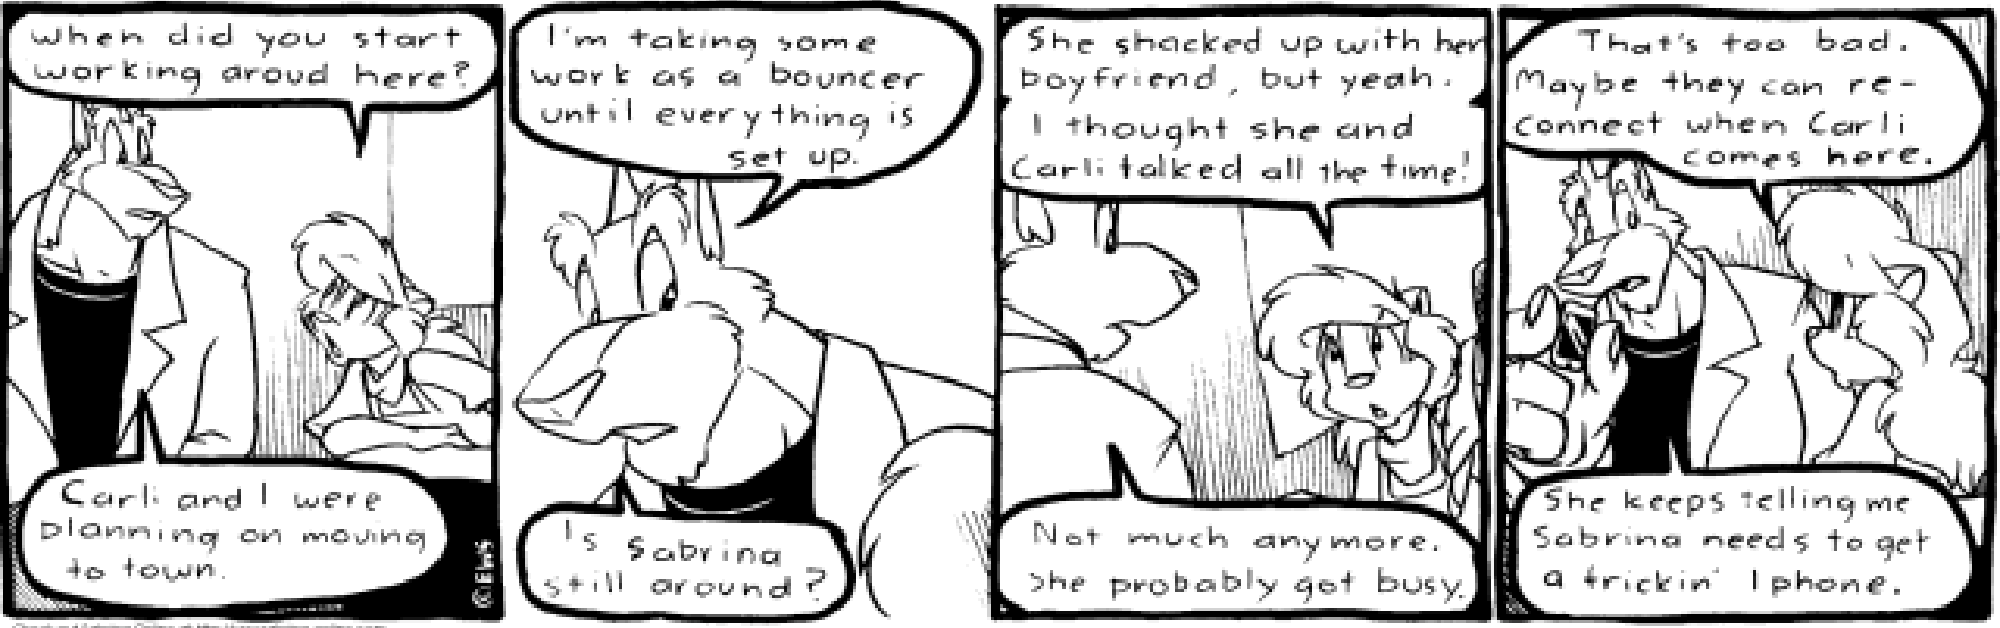
"Spike seems more like a Galaxy Note guy"



When did you start working aroud here?
Carli and I were planning on moving to town.
©EWS
I'm taking some work as a bouncer until everything is set up.
Is Sabrina still around?
She shacked up with her boyfriend, but yeah. I thought she and Carli talked all the time!
Not much anymore. She probably got busy.
That's too bad. Maybe they can re-connect when Carli comes here.
She keeps telling me Sabrina needs to get a frickin' Iphone.

As part of my therapy, I've been examining the relationships in my life, including the one with you.
What does that mean?
All those times I flirted with you, or pushed you into some situation,
I know all that made you pretty uncomfortable
Well, yeah.
Anyway, I want to apologize for putting you through that.
I see.
Thank you.
I guess.
©EWS
So does that mean you'll quit doing that stuff now?
I didn't say that!

"Incentive program"

Y'know, I realized I owe a lot to you.
Damn str— uhhh.. how do you mean?
I remember when I hired you, it was just for graphic design on DVD packages and a simple website, but since then you spearheaded the studio's entire digital presence which accounts for sixty percent of our income now.
In appreciation, I'm giving you a raise and a say in all studio operations.
©EWS
Wow, really ?!
Well, I gotta keep my sexy meal ticket sticking around and happy.
You were THIS close to being sweet there.
I'll try harder next time.

Guess what?
What?
I got another raise, and a promotion!
You're gonna make me feel inadequate if you keep jumping past me on the pay scale.
Heh, sorry.
©EWS
I'm in charge of the whole 'new media' division officially now, not just in practice.
Wow, you're getting to be a real power player
- at a porn studio
Maybe with a few more promotions, I'll stop being embarassed by that.

"Little miss bossy pants"

Well, should we celebrate your good business fortune?
Oh? What did you have in mind?
Why don't you show me what it's like now that you're a big shot?
Mmm. I think that can be arranged.
Now, why don't you come with me to bed?
Sure thing boss!
No, kiss me the RIGHT way, or you're fired!
I'm not enjoying this the way I thought I would.

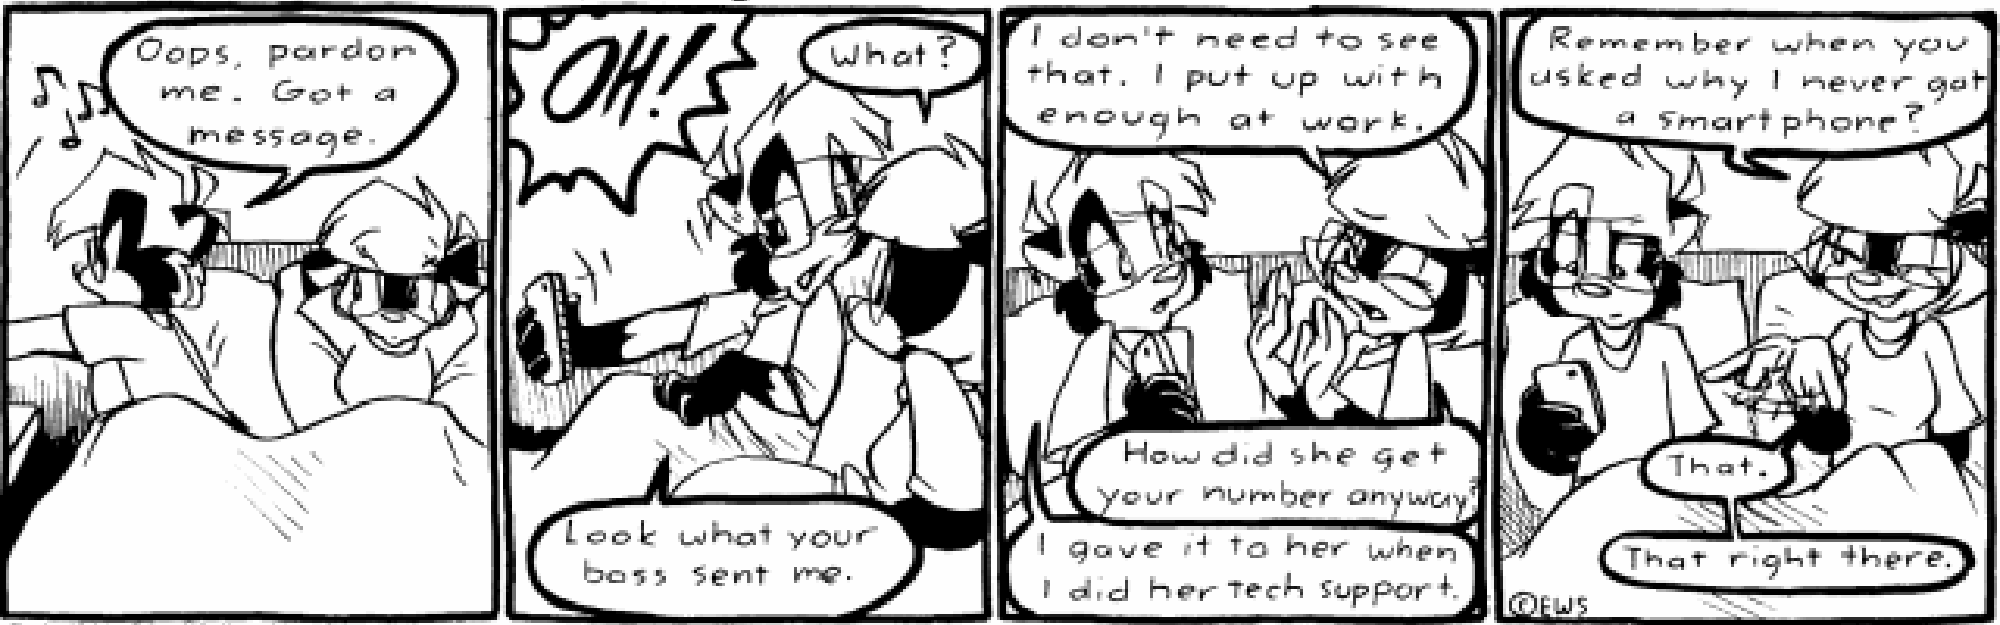
"Our meritocracy works differently"

You promoted Sabrina?
Yup!
Didn't you mention doing that already not that long ago?
Well, she's very important.
-to the business, not just to me personally.
Do you think maybe you're letting your feelings toward her influence your business decisions?
©EWS
Oh, there's no doubt about it.
I'm just owning it.
As long as there's no confusion.



Oops, pardon me. Got a message.
OH!
What?
Look what your boss sent me.
I don't need to see that. I put up with enough at work.
How did she get your number anyway?
I gave it to her when I did her tech support.
Remember when you asked why I never got a smartphone?
That.
That right there.

Nothing.
Just sending out some texts.

If you're bored we can change the subject.
What was your childhood like?
I don't like talking about my youth. It was not a pleasant time for me.
Talking it out might help you sort out your issues, and live easier with your past.
I dunno. I wouldn't want to burden you with my baggage.
You — DO understand the concept behind therapy, right?

Life was pretty rough for me as a kid. I was too different.
I got my stripes from my grandfather. He was a Siberian tiger.
It's not easy growing up as a skunk with tiger stripes.
They might as well have been a bulls eye on my ass, as far as the other children were concerned...
That's where the "Zig Zag" name came from, originally.
They say experiences like that build character.
If that character is paranoid and violent, they're absolutely right.

As much as I disliked the kids at school, that was nothing compared to my father.
@EWS
He kinda hated the life he wound up with, but loved his booze. It was a dangerous combo that hit me and the rest of the family - hard.
It didn't help that I rebelled and mouthed off to him a lot.
Things got worse as I got older, and curvier. Then he started taking his frustrations out on me in more than one way.
I stuck around mostly to protect my siblings, so I stayed the designated [redacted] catcher for some time.
That's... terrible! I certainly wouldn't expect anyone to be making light of that.
Why? Is someone supposed to be making jokes about this?

Check out Sabrina Online at http://www.sabrina-online.com

I tried, but I could only put up with so much and I had to get out of that shack. I promised my sibs that one day id get them away from there.
- away from HIM.
I had a few friends who tried to help out, but I spent some time on the street while I was figuring out how to support myself.
©EWS
looking back, I was a bit too ambitious back then. I was hoping to be a TV or movie actor, but not many agencies were interested in an odd looking nearly homeless skunk with no experience.
Meh
Eventually, I did find some paying jobs suited to someone with few prospects but plenty of desperation.
Wanna ? party?
Get in.

Stripping and turning tricks was no way to live, but at least it kept me off the streets – So to speak.
And there my stripes were "exotic" instead of "weird".
I met a friend who introduced me to her line of work in adult video.
It was more legal than what I was doing, and I had a knack for it. Soon I was in demand, gaining fame, and money.
I learned the business and worked my way up the ladder. In time and with the help of some investors, I started up my own studio.
I was also able to get my brother and sister away from my father, and into a safe home.
I was finally in control of my own fate. I was able to help keep others out of the same situations I had to deal with, and I could shove my success RIGHT up the ass of anyone who gave me crap in the past!

I didn't realize how much you've dealt with in your life. You're a very strong person.
You gonna apologize for making me talk about it now?
It's a little surprising. People with trauma similar to yours often have strong aversions to sexuality and physical contact.
but you've built a career around it.
Hm, maybe it's my rebellious side, I dunno. I always hated the idea that what I am now is just a product of my past.
fair enough.
©EWS
It's not like psychology is an exact science, after all.
Yeah- so hypothetically, could sex addiction be related to this stuff, or is that a from-birth thing?

Check out Sabrina Online at http://www.sabrina-online.com

I know it can be difficult to live with an abusive past.
Under the circumstances I think you've managed rather well.
You think so?
Despite their best intentions, many victims have been known to become abusive themselves, but you appear to be avoiding the cycle.
That's absolutely-
That's it TAKE IT
Take it you
Just calm down, and you'll love it.

I saw Amy yesterday.
Oh? How is she?
Could be better, but pretty good overall.
We spent some time catching up.
You know what she had to say?
What?
Get this...
she said we remind her of an old married couple!
Really?
That's ridiculous! SHE's the one in an old married couple!
Yeah, seriously.
By the way, did you get around to paying the electric bill?
I'll take care of it tomorrow.
We're out of milk too.

We're nothing like an old married couple! We don't bicker and argue like they do!
What are you talking about? We argue all the time!
Huh? No we don't!
You kidding? we're always clashing about something or another, like your toys or your stupid Amiga computers STUPID!?
-and remember how we had to stop playing Competitive video games after one too many death threats?
Hmm-
I guess we argue more than I realized
Damn right we do!
Looks like we're a good couple after all,
Thank you baby

welcome?

"Devastating the conversation"

It's strange to argue about arguing.
Yeah, that stuff is best left to web forums.
I think the real point here is that we get along well enough that it's OK we don't agree on everything, and while sometimes we may do thing that get on each others' nerves, we're not afraid to talk it out - instead of holding in our feelings until WHAT THE HELL ARE YOU DOING!?
what!?

Maybe I'm not... ENTIRELY unlike my father.
I can be pretty aggressive with others dominating even.
I do my best to keep myself from taking it too far, but I'm not always successful.
It helps that you're aware of your situation. Not everyone is.
That's it though. I might not have gotten where I am today if I wasn't as assertive - as gggressive as I am.
It's what makes me strong, and I wouldn't want to change it. I'm kinda conflicted here.
How can I like something about myself that I hate in others?
For many, that's just part of being a person.

Holy crud, you are one gigantic toy!
That's 'cause I'm a set of six, really.
Whatever. With you I can finally crash that girl toys meeting!

This is it ladies! I have some real muscle now, and that giant Thundercat of yours can't keep me away!

: SIGH : What now for me?
You're already doing the first step - examining your problems objectively.
You've shown that you're in control of your aggression most of the time, and you understand and regret the times you aren't.
From what you told me, it sounds like your father didn't have that kind of control.
Emotions aren't inherently good or bad. You don't need to change or abandon aggression completely.
What you DO need to do is always be aware of your feelings so you can keep in control.
UGH - it SUCKS to not be perfect!
Don't I know it.

"Must be National Snog your Shrink Day"

I'm afraid that's all the time we have for today.
So, have you figured me out yet?
I don't think my job is to figure you out, but to help you figure yourself out.
I could probably do that for free, but whatever.
Oh, one other thing..
SNOG!
Spend some time figuring THAT out and get back to me next time, 'kay?

UGH.
How long ago was that, anyway?
A little over fifteen years ago.

With our anniversary coming up, I think we should have a big dinner with our family and friends.
Not just the two of us?
We usually do that, but I've been thinking about how much they've been a big part of our lives.
How many people?
I dunno. twelve or so.
Also, we don't see our old friends as much as we used to.
I guess you're right. It'll be nice to have a big gathering.

Danielle is such a tech genius, isn't she?
With our background it was inevitable.
-and we're excellent parents of course.
Oh, of course.
DMY Mom & Dad I'm just using my phone.
I can't get into those head-mounted deals.
Yeah, back in our day, a phone was something you held in your hand, and you touched it.
Pshh- when was that. like back in World War two?
Be nice young lady. We keep up with technology. We just don't need the latest thing all the time. that's all.
Is that why you keep those ancient dinosaur computers in the other room?
You liked my Amigas well enough when you were into playing "Lemmings"!

AUNT TABITHA!
Hey kiddo!
Aw! You have the new headphone! I need to get one of those. Mine is like two years old.
You're OK driving me to the studio while my car's in the shop, right?
Sure, just let me grab my keys.
So when are you gonna get with the times and buy a self-driving car?
When they make one that won't drive into a river like yours did.

Hey, it just means there's more of you to-

Hey! There's my Tech Czar!
Still not sure about that title. Regardless, I brought along your newest hire.
Zig Zag, thanks so much for this opportunity.
I couldn't possibly resist the sister of my favorite employee.
But first...
Are you truly prepared for working at an adult studio, a career packed with nudity, fetishes, sex, and wild people such as your boss?
Well, I've known you for years, so I think I can handle it.
OK then. Welcome aboard.
So, here's everyone's coffee and drink orders. Oh, and Joey needs a spicy chicken wrap to get him up for his session.
Got it.

Your entire blood line is adorable.
It's - strange.
Hmm?
Tabitha comes to work here,
- and you hire her as an office assistant?
I know! It's bizarre, right?
I mean, you didn't even offer her on-screen work.
I figured you might kill me if I did.
Oh yeah, I would totally annihilate you.
But you never really flirted or anything with Tabitha, not like with me, anyway.
Yeah, well - I've known her since she was five. She's like a baby sister to me too.
I wouldn't do that stuff to my sister.
Too bad you didn't know me when I was five. Could've saved me some grief.
Wouldn't have made much difference, 'cause I would've been about the same age.

Sure, I'd love to come to your anniversary dinner.
Great.
So, how do you do it?
You're gonna have to be more specific.
I mean, you barely look any different than when I first met you, but look at me!
Oh please, you're still absolutely [redacted]able.
Thanks.
and your ear tips aren't going gray. I'm not sure what to do with that.
©EWS
But anyway, my looks are my livelyhood, so I'm constantly working on it - excercise, diet, makeup, a judicious procedure here or there
I'd rather age grarefully than get that stretched out facelift look though.
That's what I envy about you. You don't need to be a sex goddess to be great at what you do. You could be heavy or ugly or -

The software team really outdid themselves, don'cha think?
Uhm - I better stop before I start something that I gotta finish.
That was so real! I felt - everything!
It's supposed to be the most immersive neural feedback VR hardware you can get - short of drilling wires into your brain stem.
That was ME in there. I was about to have sex with me.
Yeah, the plan is to sell interactive simulations with all the studio stars, including you, and you in your twenties.
©EWS
We tried to make the sims as accurate as possible, using performance recording and 3D scanning.
Oh yeah, I remember "wear motion-capture dots to work day" now.

The Zig Zag simulation is designed to interact with online players like you would, and handle a wide range of partners and preferences.
- also like you would.
Aw, we are gonna make so much bank with this!
The sims are made to run autonomously, but there's also a 'manual' mode for studio actors too.
What does that mean?
It means, if you were so inclined, you could hop on the VR network, take over the avatar, and interact with players yourself.
Ooh, I am gonna mess with some lucky fans. - but first,

So how are things going around here?
Pretty good. - different, especially since the law changed a few years back.
I'll bet.
We compete with big chain stores now, but we hold our own with personal service and consultations for growers.
How are the store owners dealing with this success?
One of 'em sold his share to me, and moved west to become a venture capitalist or whatever.
